There was a good crowd at the sugar supper served by the ladies of the Congregational church Tuesday evening. About $25 was cleared and everyone reported a good time and plenty of good sugar.

The snow reported last week has disappeared gradually, but the amount of sugar made has been somewhat disappointing to date. Some sugar makers report considerable sap now but the prospects are that the season is nearing the end.

Splendid Record of Mr. Warner Noted The April Vermont Missionary contains the following regarding the termination of Rev. W. A. Warner's pastorate in Barton: "The resignation of the pastor, Rev. W. A. Warner, to take effect the last Sunday in April, at the close of a pastorate of 16 years, the longest in the history of the church, will remove from Orleans county the dean among the clergy. Mr. Warner is a native of the state, his boyhood having been spent in the towns of Westfield, Lowell, Eden, Greensboro and Johnson. He began his ministry in Hubbardton, and after a course of study at Oberlin came to Pawlet, going thence to Bethel and following to Barton. In 1906 the church gave Mr. Warner a four months' vacation, with purse of money for a trip to the Holy Land. In 1900 Mr. Warner was chaplain of the Vermont house of representatives, and in 1896 chaplain of the senate. His services at funerals have been in great demand, in his pastorate at Barton the number reaching nearly 700. His pulpit work and public addresses have endeared him to a wide circle outside his church folk and the town."

FARM BUREAU NOTES.

Dairy Survey of County. Use of Lime Discussed.

Miss Bertha A. Holden, home economics specialist from Burlington. will give a demonstration at Orleans in the Methodist church vestry Thursday at 3 p. m. Her subject will be, "Selection and Care of Textiles."

As soon as the roads are better the county agent plans to meet with representative committees in each town that has not as yet adopted a program and make plans to put across projects of local interest this year. Nine communities in the county are already working on a definite program of work.

The dairy survey which was run by the farmers of this county under the direction of the Farm Bureau was a "corker." Not all the cards are in as yet, but over 25,000 dairy animals have been reported on by 124 committeemen. The percentage of registered bulls is way too low for such a dairy county as this and there is ample opportunity to better the percentage of registered females. The tabulated results of this survey will be published as soon as the figures are completed.

Many of us have often in the past read the statement in various farm part of Vermont, was burned papers or cited by public lecturers, Monday with a $200,000 loss. says, regarding pastoral support: "The splendid laymen of this district are alive to the fact that to demand efficiency in the pulpit and the parish, they must provide a better support for the pastors. I have taken this matter up with the laymen at nearly every charge in the district, and have urged an advance in salary with the following results: Irasburg, under a union effort previously arranged, has advanced the salary $400; Lunenburg advanced $500; Sheffield began the year at an advance of $465; East Burke volunteered an advance of $150; Morrisville, St. Johnsbury, Wolcott, Island Pond, and Sheldon, $200 each; Montgomery, Craftsbury, Barre, Bradford, Barton, Swanton, Newport Center and South Albany, $100 each; Peacham, Holland and Morgan, Cambridge, West Burke, Bloomfield and Plainfield, $50 each; Williamstown advanced $25. This makes a total of increase in pastoral support Mr. Killgore from Whitefield, N. this year on the Northern District of H., spent the week-end at Irvin Mur- $3,640. Several small places have agreed to advance their pastor's salary $200 each next year, which is gravitating in the right direction." On the subject of debt raising Supt. Sharp says:

> "St. Johnsbury has raised $4,500 to apply on their church debt. Craftsbury has taken care of the entire indebtedness on their church property; Orleans has paid off a long-standing debt of $1,000; Island Pond sold their old parsonage, bought a new and much better one, and had enough money left to clear up their church

"The most outstanding achievement was accomplished at Newport. Here the situation was critical. A debt of $8,500 and the church under inadequate leadership until last March, when the present pastor arrived. This debt became a burden and discouraged the most optimistic. "The time seemed ripe to make a drive to liquidate the debt, and the pastor and superintendent set out to many sections of the city, and a personal canvass of the entire constituency was inaugurated. The general canvass was launched on Nov. 18, and lasted eight days with the result of addition to take care of the interest,
